Thank you for your help!

Thank you Thank you!!

On behalf of the St. Martin Catholic Women's League, thank you to everyone who worked to make the sausage supper a success for the 58th year. One difference this year was our man on the mic. After many years of service, Stan, your absence did not go unnoticed. Rest In Peace. Thank you to the Heisler General Store for producing the fine sausage.

We are also grateful for the Community Centre Board who continue to maintain our venue, a facility to be proud of.

Thank you to the people who made the sauerkraut, wrapped sausage, set up the Community Centre, fried sausage, supplied requested food items, the new man on the mic, to the sellers of supper tickets, raffle tickets and sausage. To the workers in the kitchen, the food handlers, dish cleaners, servers and the final cleanup crew. A special thank you to the teenagers who supplied some needed youthful vigor.

Once again thank you!! God Bless You

The Flagstaff Library Support Committee is celebrating thirty years of service to the libraries within the County. The group was originally formed by several citizens of the County who wished to supply the libraries with quality children's literature. The project was spearheaded by Judy Routledge. At present, the Committee meets three times a year and consists of representatives from the eight participating libraries, along with one of the original members, Jackie Candlish, who continues to co-ordinate the program. During these exchanges, eight kits are rotated throughout the libraries. There are approximately 1600 books that are constantly being updated, multimedia material, and 100 DVDs in the system. Every four months, your Library receives a new kit. These kits contain a delightful array of children's books and DVDs, and can be borrowed from the library. This committee is unique to Western Canada, and we are very fortunate to have the County continue to fund such a program. Make sure to visit your library and take advantage of such a wonderful program.

Thank you,

Remembrance Day Message 2013

I am filled with pride to speak on Remembrance Day – to join with others in commemorating the sacrifice of those who stood against tyranny, and who fought for freedom.

Our pride comes from our values: peace, liberty, democracy, and the rule of law. The same values that so many of our brave men and women fought for and many died to protect in foreign battlefields around the world.

The impact of military service on family should not be understated. Their husbands and wives, children and parents, deserve as much gratitude from us as their loved ones in uniform. We owe, as Canadians, a debt to our heroes in uniform and their families; a debt that we can never repay. Their sacrifices have made our way of life possible. The freedoms we enjoy every single day are a lasting tribute to their bravery.

Our peace is their legacy.

Today I join with all Canadians in saying Thank You to Canada's heroes – those who served our country in war and the men, women, and families of the Canadian Armed Forces.

May we never forget their sacrifice.

Leon Benoit MP
