Community Open Houses Set for Regional Governance Initiative

Region residents encouraged to join the conversation

October 21, 2016 - For immediate release

Four community open houses have been confirmed for the Public Engagement Phase of the Flagstaff Intermunicipal Partnership (FIP) Regional Governance Initiative.

“Citizen engagement is vital as we work together to chart a path forward for the region,” said Bob Coutts, Deputy Mayor of Forestburg and FIP Chair. “I encourage as many people as possible to attend the open houses and have their voices heard.”

The intent is to have these open houses spread across the region to ensure opinions are gathered from as many communities as possible. The open houses will take place on:

November 1st –Strome Seniors Centre. 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.

November 3rd – Alliance Community Hall, 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.

November 19th – Heisler Seniors Centre, 10 a.m. to 1p.m.

November 19th – Hardisty Community Hall, 2 to 5 pm

A public information package on the Regional Governance Initiative will be available on the project website (www.flagstaffunited.ca) ahead of the meetings. If people are unable to attend, feedback can be given through the website as well.

The Flagstaff Regional Governance Initiative is exploring new ideas and ways for collaboration between FIP communities. Using input from citizens and community leaders, its goal is to develop a new vision for the region to help it become more successful over the long-term. It is expected to be completed in December 2017.

The Flagstaff Intermunicipal Partnership is a committee made up of representatives from all municipalities within the Flagstaff Region: Towns of Daysland, Hardisty, Killam and Sedgewick, the Villages of Alliance, Forestburg, Heisler and Loughheed and Flagstaff County. More information on the FIP Regional Governance Project can be found at www.flagstaffunited.ca

Important Consensus Reached in Regional Governance Project

October 12, 2016 - For immediate release

An agreement to continue exploring closer relationships and further collaboration between member communities of the Flagstaff Intermunicipal Partnership (FIP) was reached during a significant committee meeting in late September.

“All the research and information we have to-date clearly indicates we cannot settle with the status quo,” said Bob Coutts, Deputy Mayor of Forestburg and FIP Chair. “We don’t have a solution yet, but we know we must continue down this path and determine what will work best for everyone.”

On Thursday, September 29, project consultants presented FIP with early findings from nearly five months of extensive research and information gathering. The research and data show that even though FIP communities are generally viable today, population and economic trends and provincial government requirements for cooperation are challenges that must be addressed.

“We need to act now and work together in order to give all our communities the best chance of long-term success,” said Bud James, Mayor of Killam. “This isn’t about protecting territory – it’s about building stronger communities for the next generation.”

A detailed report on research findings – a critical first step required before talking about potential solutions - will be released to the public in the coming weeks. The report will include information on the project’s next steps and questions for the public to provide feedback. This will be the first stage in a broad public engagement and consultation phase of the project.

“It is extremely important that the public have a say in the future of our communities,” added Coutts.

Using input from citizens and community leaders, its goal is to develop a new vision for the region to help it become more successful over the long-term. ## COMING SOON! WAGON TRAILS VOLUME II

Heisler is planning an updated history book of the community and surrounding area. This hardcover book with color photos will be professionally printed and bound by Friesens Corporation. It will include family histories and memories of those who lived here in the past and those who live in and around Heisler today. We plan on including a section on heritage barns in the area.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR YOUR STORY

To help you tell your story we are including history story guidelines. Here are some story ideas for your family history submission. Remember, your family's story is unique – you may add to, or leave out story lines as you wish. This is a general guideline to follow if you are not sure what to include.

- Full name and maiden name, where born and raised
- Marriages, births, anniversaries
- Where your home was and exact land location
- Parents (names and occupation)
- Brothers and sisters
- Children, name, marriages, births
- Grandparents, names and occupations
- Interesting incidents and events
- Deaths (age, where and when)
- Immigration to Canada (from where, when, reasons and means of transportation)
- Education, religion, occupation or trades
- Names of your neighbours and/or hired help
- Community interests, sports, hobbies, awards and special achievements
- Agriculture, ranching, businesses or government involvement
- Armed forces service: past and present, when and where served
- Natural phenomenon: floods, fires, storms, etc. Include impact on family
- Special stories or memories: favourite memories or best stories about events, incidents or characters in your family, church, club, business or community

Please indicate who has written the story. The publication committee reserves the right to edit your stories for the purpose of length or repetition, however we will keep the stories as close as possible to what you have provided.

If you have any questions or need to contact us please do not hesitate to contact the following:

Barb Kroetsch           780-889-2226
Charlotte Curtis       780-889-2139

Martha Zimmer       780-374-2328.

or email us at wagontrails2017@gmail.com

Please turn over for order form and more details.

We need your family history updates whether your history is a continuation of the previous history book or a whole new story of your time in our community. If there was an error in the first book please send us any necessary corrections and an update. We want to hear from you!!

Please send your typewritten (double spaced if possible) story to the listed address shown below or email your story to wagontrails2017@gmail.com

If you feel uncertain about writing your history, we have staff writers that will be happy to interview you and help with writing your story. Please don't hesitate to contact us!!

PLEASE REMEMBER TO SEND PHOTOGRAPHS!

Photos of family (past and present) and local interest will be appreciated. All photos will be treated with care and returned. Do not write on the back of your photo. Send on a separate paper who is in the photo and when it was taken (if known). We might not be able to print them all but we will do our best. Historical photos would be especially appreciated. If you will be emailing your photos, scan the photos in colour at 300 ppi (600 ppi if the photo is to be enlarged) so we get the proper resolution for a good photo in the book.

There is a great deal of time consuming work involved in assembling a history book after we receive your family histories. So please send your submissions and orders by May 1, 2016 so we can meet our printer's deadline and have it printed and bound for the summer of 2017.

We require a deposit on books you may want to order, to help us with our expenses in creating this book. This will ensure that you will receive all the copies you have ordered. We will not know how many books to order without this guideline. If for some unforeseen reason that we are unable to make the book, your deposit will be returned.

SPREAD THE WORD . . .

In order to make this book as complete as possible we will need to contact those who no longer live in the Heisler area. If you have contact information for someone who would like to be included in this publication please provide this to the committee. In addition, let your extended families know about this project. Find us on facebook: Wagon Trails Volume II

Understand what is RUDE, what is MEAN, and what is BULLYING

When someone says or does something unintentionally hurtful and they do it once, that's RUDE.

When someone says or does something intentionally hurtful and they do it once, that's MEAN.

When someone says or does something intentionally hurtful and they keep doing it even when you tell them to stop or show them that you're upset, that's BULLYING.

Know the Signs of Bullying

- Your child could be experiencing bullying if they have frequent headaches, stomach aches, poor sleep, unexplained bruises, frequent crying, or reluctant to go to school.
- Your child could be bullying others if they have "extra" money or "new" toys, books, or clothes; they talk about others in a cruel manner, or exclude others from activities.

If you sense something is wrong, trust your instincts.

What can children do if they are bullied?

Children are often scared and angry when they are bullied. They may not know what to do. Teach them to:

- Speak up. Say, "Leave me alone" or "You don't scare me." Have your child practice saying this in a calm, strong voice.
- Walk away. It is best for them to remove themselves in a calm manner, even if they are afraid.
- Tell an adult. A parent or teacher can then take steps to stop the bullying.

Children on Both Sides of Bullying Incidents Need Support

- Talk about bullying before it happens so children know how to recognize and react to it.
- Role model empathy and teach your children to respect others.
- Build your child's self-esteem.
- Teach your child speak up if they see someone being bullied.
- Talk to a counsellor or call the Bullying Helpline for help at 1-888-456-2323
